MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Subject: Establishment of Intelligence Advisory Committee Standing Committee

1. With reference to your desire to establish a Standing Committee for the Intelligence Advisory Committee, there is attached ICAPS' draft of a paper to be considered by the Intelligence Advisory Committee when it meets.

2. To date, it is understood that only the State Department and the Atomic Energy Commission have replied to the Executive Secretary of the National Security Council accepting his proposals and naming their Intelligence Advisory Committee members.

3. If you approve of the attached memo, it will be prepared for submission at the first meeting of the Intelligence Advisory Committee, or it can be circulated to the Intelligence Advisory Committee members as they are named by their agencies.

DONALD EDGAR
Chief, ICAPS
